NEW CHAMPION IS LOOMING UP.

WORLD

Anders Andersson, the Strong Swede, "Made Good" to His Claim as a Wrestler in Bout with Kreig.

A new champion of all wrestlers comed up on the athletic horizon last night. He was Anders Andersson, the strong man from Sweden, who arrived in this country several weeks ago without any heralding as a wonder at any game. He met Phillip Kreig, the clever big man of the Hell Gate A. C., in the arena of the New Polo A. A., Onto Park avenue and in almost as quick time as it takes to tell it he had Kreis laid flat on his shoulders twice.

When Andersson was introduce the "strongest man in the world" there were many of the thousand people present who were inclined to ridicule the remark. Those same people changed their ideas after the big Swede had been wrestling about two minutes. He was not exerting himself very much, but what he showed of his power was enough to convince them into the was and that was claimed of him.

In just 7 minutes and 12 seconds after the bout began he had Kreig on his back. He had gained a hold when to every one's mind he was doomed to defeat. Kreig had a walst hold and was about to throw his man to the mat when Anderson by just one little puil at Kreig's interlocked fingers broke the hold, and grabbing Kreig, tossed fain in the air as though he weighed 200 counces instead of 200 pounds and gained the first fell. It took him 2 minutes and a seconds to gain the second fail on Kreig and then pandemonium broke loose. The friends of Kreig joined is congratulating Anderson and there was not one in the house who does not believe to-day that he is the superior of any Graeca-Roman wrestler in America. In a word, Anderson "made good" his word that he would show his word rather than preach it.
